Seeking Treasurer Nominations

As we have communicated since late December 2021, there are open positions for the Board of Directors which will be voted on during the in-person AGM on Saturday April 30 in Richmond.

Nominations are open to regular members in good standing per Section 5.5 of our Bylaws. Candidates for a position on the Board of Directors must be nominated by a current member PAC or DPAC. Completed nomination forms must be received by email by midnight February 28, 2022.

Members may recall that we did not receive any nominations in 2021 for the then open position of Treasurer. The Board appointed Michelle Sylvest prior to the May 2021 AGM as permitted by the Bylaws. The position of Treasurer is open for election at the 2022 AGM for the remaining one year of the two year term. Director Sylvest had previously been able to commit to putting her name forward for nomination and to run in the elections but her family circumstances have changed and she will not be doing so.

While we can appoint a Treasurer, we would prefer that nominations are submitted so members can vote for the candidate(s) during the elections held during the business of the AGM.

If you know someone who has the skills to be the Treasurer, please connect them with our Nominations Chair via the office or contact me directly. We recommend candidates and those considering putting their name forward to review Information for Nominees and the Nomination Form.

Elections will take place at the AGM on Saturday, April 30, 2022 during our annual Parent Education Conference and AGM, taking place April 29 - May 1, 2022, at the Westin Wall Centre Hotel in Richmond BC.

President
