

UNITS OF INQUIRY - 2021

	Who We Are	Where We Are in Place and Time	How We Express Ourselves	How the World Works	How We Organize Ourselves	Sharing the Planet
K	Exploring our identity helps us understand who we are.	Families fulfill needs.	We connect to and express ourselves through stories.	Living things respond and adapt to change.	Shared responsibility enhances a community.	The choices we make affect our planet and future generations.
1/2	Building community creates a sense of belonging.	Family and life experiences shape our identity.	Art can be used to express ideas and emotions.	Access to clean water is essential for life.	Symbols are part of human made systems that facilitate communication.	Human interactions impact animal habitats.
3/4	Reconciliation allows for justice and healing between communities.	Economic and political factors drive migration.	Heroes influence and inspire us.	Experimentation can lead to innovation and discovery	Systems of ethics inspire action.	Understanding facilitates informed choices.
4/5 5/6	Building community creates a sense of belonging.	Values drive public policy	Literacy facilitates independence.	Experimentation can lead to innovation and discovery	Structures and systems organize society.	Geography determines economic interests.
6/7	Ingenuity optimizes survival in a variety of environments.	Knowledge of scientific principles promotes innovation.	Understanding how written language works allows us to use it purposefully.	Close investigation reveals structure and composition.	Self interest creates conflict.	Exhibition