The screenshot shows the British Columbia website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the British Columbia logo, the word "Alpha", a search icon, and a menu icon. Below the navigation bar is a breadcrumb trail: Home > Education & Training > Kindergarten to Grade 12 > Support > Order Transcripts & Certificates >. The main content area features a blue header with the text "Order a High School Transcript or Certificate as a Current Student" and a sub-header "View, order, or send your transcript to universities and colleges." To the right of this header is a timer icon showing "Takes up to 30 Minutes" and an "Order" button. Below the header is a sidebar with a "What you'll need" section containing links for "Overview", "Order", "Delivery & Fees", and "Contact". The main content area below the sidebar is titled "What you'll need" and contains the following text: "Before you access the StudentTranscripts Service as a current student, you will need" followed by a bulleted list: "Your Personal Education Number (PEN)" (with a sub-bullet "Check your report card or contact your school to find your PEN. See Find Your PEN"), "A valid email address", "Your date of birth", and "Your legal first and last name". Below the list, it states "You must register for a Basic BCeID account to access the StudentTranscripts Service." and "You are a current student if you are presently enrolled in a secondary school or have completed a course within the last six months. If you're not a current student, see Order Transcripts & Certificates."

Wow! An account just for you! Now you can review your Assessment Marks and Official Ministry Transcripts.
