

MAGAZINE & NEWSPAPER ARTICLES

FORMAT FOR ARTICLES IN PRINT:

Author's Last Name, First Name. "Title of article." Title of the Magazine, volume number, issue number, Date of Magazine, page number(s).

Examples:

"400,000 Names on Petition," The Province, 13 May 2010, p. A6.

"Mountain Transformed: Thirty Years after the Blast." National Geographic, photographed by Diane Cook and Len Jenshel, May 2010, pp. 37 - 53.

Zarychanski, Ryan and Donald Houston. "Anemia of Chronic Disease."

CMAJ: Canadian Medical Association Journal, vol. 179, no. 4, 12

Aug. 2008, pp. 333 – 335.

Note:

- When no author is mentioned begin with the title of the article.
(See 1st & 2nd examples above.)
- Provide volume and issue numbers only if they are available.
- If other contributors (i.e. photographers, illustrators, etc.) are mentioned, include this information after the Magazine Title (See 2nd example above.)
- When citing an online magazine / periodical article, it is not necessary to write down the Access Date because the information is static (i.e. it cannot be altered).