

This is an example of a proper Works Cited page, listing a variety of poetry resources.

---

Works Cited

- Dahl, Roald. "Hey Diddle Diddle." Poetry In Voice. 2016,
www.poetryinvoic.com/poems/ozymandias. Accessed 17 March 2017.
- Dahl, Roald. "Hey Diddle Diddle." Poetry Speaks to Children. Sourcebook Media, 2005, p. 150.
- Dahl, Roald. "Hey Diddle Diddle." Rhyme Stew. Puffin, 1989, p.20.
- Ondaatje, Michael. "A Gate In His Head." 15 Canadian Poets, edited by Gary Geddes and Phyllis Bruce, Oxford University Press, 1970, pp. 261-262.
- Silverstein, Shel. "Sidewalking." Falling Up. Harper Collins, 1996, p. 51.

---

TIPS / NOTES:

- Titles of the poems are in "quotation marks".
- Titles of the resource (i.e. the book, website, anthology) is in italics.
- URLs (i.e should not contain the http:// prefix & should not be hyperlinked or underlined). See first citation above.
- Format for Dates is always: day Mon. Year . (Ex. 06 Apr. 2020)
Abbreviations for months are available on the Library's How To Guide for "Citing Resources – MLA format".
- Abbreviations for page (p.) or pages (pp.)
- PUNCTUATION MATTERS! Look at examples and check the How to Guides posted on the Templeton Library Website.