

IMAGES

(i.e. photographs, illustrations, or graphics found on a website or database)

Digital Image from Internet

"A digital images is any picture that can be viewed electronically by a computer or digital device."

FORMAT:

Title of image or your own description of the image. Digital image.

Title of the website where it was published (not google!). Date it was published (if you know it). URL.

Feeding time. Digital image. Shutterstock. www.shutterstock.com.

Cow in pasture. Digital image. iStockGetty Images. 18 May 2010. www.istockphoto.com/ca/stock-photos/#4509-cowpasture.

Note: When the image does not have a title assigned, use your own description of the image in the place of the title.

Image on Display in a Gallery

FORMAT:

Creator's Last Name, First Name or Initial (if available). Title of Work. Date of work (year), Name of Gallery, Location (City).

Da Vinci, Leonardo. Mona Lisa. circa1503, Louvre Museum, Paris.

Goya, Francisco. The Family of Charles IV. 1800, Museo del Prado, Madrid.

Note: If information is not available, continue with the next item required.

Images in Books

FORMAT:

Creator of the Image (Last Name, First Name or Initial). Title of the Image. Date of Work, Name of Gallery, Location (City). Title of the Book, Editor(s) of Book (if applicable), Publisher of Book, Date of Publication, page or plate #.

Watteau, Jean-Antoine. Pierrot. 1725. Paintings in the Louvre, ed. by Lawrence Gowing, Stewart, Tabori and Chang, 1987, p.507.

Note: If information is not available, continue with the next item required.

Review all the General Rules that appear on the “Citing Resources - MLA style” page.