

John Oliver Music Program presents for a "Sweet Sounds" JO Alumni

By LLOYD DYKK
Sun Music Critic

ON A radiant Thursday, Teo Repel gives his John Oliver Music Program rehearsal room festivities stage. It has been his room for one of the last years he'll retire this month.

He's become very attached to this little room of music situated in a maelstrom of traffic with 41st and Fraser just a closer, the road.

Proudly he stands in the Memorial Door which, with its sound-muffling hallway noise, the Vancouver door," he says has resisted 30 "Finally."

Choir Concert

Thursday, May 29, 2025
7pm in Auditorium

Join us in celebration of music, memory, and the generations that keep our choir alive.

Reception to follow in JO Cafeteria!
8:30-9:30pm

We hope the community can come together for one night, we encourage YOU to attend and show your support!

$20 tickets available at the door
OR FOLLOW THIS QR CODE! ----->

Made in ★ LYSSA STUDIOS