Orange Shirt Day 2023: Friday, September 29

September 2023 OUR VSB

VSB - INDIGENOUS EDUCATION

Design by Robin Roberts, Haida/Tsimshian/Squamish

Limited number of orange shirts available for order through your school Administrator.

ORANGE SHIRT DAY
National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

Originally introduced in Parliament in September of 2020, Bill C-5 was signed into law in the summer of 2021. The law gives Canada a new statutory holiday. September 30 is now officially National Day for Truth and Reconciliation across the country. The kind of ceremonies taking place on September 30 will vary depending on the province. There is no standard, although orange shirts will likely remain a powerful symbol.

September 30 will be a day of reflection with an opportunity to honour and remember all impacted by the residential school system. It's a time to learn from our province's history and, hopefully, take steps to improve our current society. The date was chosen because it is the time of year in which children were taken from their homes to residential schools, and it also provides educators an opportunity to foster dialogue and deepen their understanding of Indigenous Peoples' histories for the coming school year.

Orange Shirt Day is also an opportunity for Indigenous and non-Indigenous people, local governments, schools and communities to come together in the spirit of reconciliation.

Why Orange Shirts?

Orange Shirt Day is a legacy of the St. Joseph Mission (SJM) residential school commemoration event held in Williams Lake, BC, Canada, in May 2013. It grew out of Phyllis Webstad's story of having her shiny new orange shirt taken away on her first day of school at the Mission. It has become an opportunity to keep the discussion, on all aspects of residential schools, occurring annually.
