An Update on the Canada Post Strike from ARTONA:

An Update on the Canada Post Strike Artona

Due to the recent Canada Post strike, we have made some changes to our services and how we are delivering photo packages. We have included an outline of these changes below, along with answers to some common questions you may get from students and families.

Graduation Photo Orders

We will continue using Purolator as our main shipping provider for graduation packages. Customers can expect the usual 4-6 weeks to receive their graduation photo orders.

Artona Books and Graduation Deposit Refunds

We are no longer producing Artona Books — the proof booklet graduates would receive to preview their photos. All images will continue to be uploaded online for viewing and ordering.

Any students requesting a refund for their graduation deposit can now fill out our Deposit Request Form online. It may take up to 1-2 weeks for our team to process deposit refunds.

School Day Orders

All bulk school deliveries that were due last week were shipped before the strike. All school day orders placed up until November 10th were also shipped. We are hopeful those deliveries made it in time. However, if you are still waiting on a delivery that was due last week, please let your account representative know.

All school day orders placed after November 11th that would normally be shipped to home are being set aside at our studio. Our team will be delivering these packages in batches to your school via Purolator or by us in person. We greatly appreciate your support in helping to distribute these packages to students and families.

Stuck or Missing Orders

If any students or parents have a missing or stuck in transit order, please have them contact our CS team. Our team will work to find a solution — we do not want our families to go without their photos, especially during the holiday season.

We greatly appreciate your support during this time and will be in touch if there are any other changes or updates. Have a question? We're here to help.

Please contact Alysha at alysha@artona.com if you have any other questions.

The Artona Team
