We are Moving to our New School— Reminder

We have an exciting update about our seismic project. The contractor has worked hard on the project, and the building has now received the occupancy permit from the City of Vancouver. The contractor is finishing some minor details, and our District teams are preparing for the move into the school.

I have received confirmation of our date to move:

Thursday, November 23 will be the last day for students at the original DLG school

Friday, November 24 is a Pro-D Day – school not in session

Monday, November 27 will be our first instructional day in the new DLG school

I appreciate the work and collaboration of all of our students, staff, families, and contractors throughout this process.

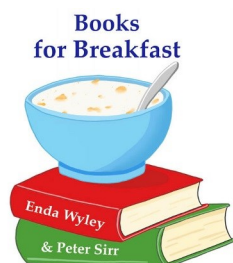

No Winter Concert

The December Winter Concert has been canceled due to the move to the new school.

The staff is excited to work in our new building and will need time to adjust to our new space and design. Once we begin teaching in our new space, we will work out the logistics of holding a concert.

Books for Breakfast Postponed

Due to the move to the new school, we will be postponing Books for Breakfast to focus on moving and adjusting to our learning environment.

Once we settle, we will begin Books for Breakfast again.

For families who never been, Books for Breakfast is a time for families to read and have a light breakfast at 8:15 in the morning.

Professional Day: Friday, November 24—No School for Students

Friday, November 24 is our professional day. There is no school for students on professional days.

The entire school district will be engaged in discussions on Indigenous ways of learning and teaching.

Staff is looking forward to this day as we explore new ways to infuse more Indigenous content into our teaching practices.

Report Cards Going Home Friday, December 1

Report Cards, also known as Learning Updates, will be going home with your child(ren) on Friday, December 1.

As last year, teachers will use proficiency scales (Emerging, Developing, Proficient, and Extending) to evaluate students and not letter grades.

Learning Updates will be sent home three times per year this school year with the dates being the following:

- December 1, 2023
- March 12, 2024
- June 24, 2024

School Liaison Officer Program

In November 2022, the Vancouver School Board approved a revised School Liaison Officer (SLO) program, effective from the current school year. The initiative aligns with the commitment to fostering safe and welcoming schools, acknowledging potential discomfort with police presence and encouraging communication about specific needs or considerations. School liaison officers, integral members of school communities, aim to be supportive and positive, undergoing specialized training. Emphasizing diversity, they wear casual uniforms, use unmarked vehicles, and carry less visible firearms while delivering safety programs and offering guidance. Student interaction is not obligatory, and questions or concerns can be addressed directly to the principal.

Please see page 3 of this newsletter for more information.

Purdys Chocolate and Gift Cards Holiday Fundraisers

Once again, DLG PAC will be raising money with two popular fundraisers: Purdys Chocolate Sales and Gift Cards Sales.

For Purdys orders, an email was sent out last week for families to purchase.

For Gift Cards orders, a paper copy was sent home with students last week as well. You can also see page 4 and 5 of this newsletter for a copy of the order form.

Kindergarten Registration for Sept 2024 - Reminder

If you have a child born in 2019, go to the link below to register them for kindergarten.

Link: <https://www.vsb.bc.ca/page/5195/priority-kindergarten-registration>

Our school may have a kindergarten lottery for September 2024 so please register before the deadline.

Registration is open from November 1, 2023 to January 31, 2024

November 16, 2023

Dear DLG community,

In November 2022, trustees of the Vancouver School Board approved a motion to implement a revised School Liaison Officer (SLO) program beginning this school year. This program has been mainly at secondary schools since September. Elementary school communities can also benefit from the support and guidance of police officers who work within the program.

Occasionally, we may invite one of the program's officers to our school. This may be to participate in a school event, to provide a presentation, to share other information with our school community or to ensure safety at the school. We will provide you with advance notice if an officer is invited to the school to participate in an event or presentation. We will also share details about the focus of the event or the information they will provide.

The revised program is a part of our ongoing commitment to foster safe and welcoming schools. But we understand that some people may not be comfortable with police at school. Please let us know if you or your child has specific needs or considerations.

School liaison officers are valued members of school communities. Like other educators and staff at DLG, their goal is to be a supportive and positive presence. They are of diverse ethnic and cultural backgrounds and have received specialized training to excel in this unique role. Officers will wear casual uniforms, utilize unmarked vehicles and carry less visible firearms. They deliver safety and crime prevention programs. They are also available to provide advice and guidance to students, staff and student-families who seek support. However, there is no obligation for students to interact with them.

If you have any questions about the program or want to let us know about specific considerations for you or your child's comfort, please reach out to me.

Sincerely,

Peter Woo
