

IPALS

Immigrant Parents as Literacy Supporters

Program for newcomers and immigrant families with children ages 3-5
(For Mandarin/Cantonese speaking families with permanent resident status)

Vancouver School Board is offering a free family literacy program, with 8 on-site sessions that will give parents & caregivers strategies to encourage learning in their preschool aged children. Within IPALS, children learn to strengthen their language & other literacy skills that will help & prepare them for school. There will be great learning materials for families to take home and snack will be provided in each session. All sessions will be presented in Chinese.
