OUR HISTORY

Lord Byng Secondary is a public secondary school located in the Point Grey neighborhood on the west side of Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada. The school officially opened in 1925 and was named in honor of Julian Hedworth George Byng, the Lord Byng of Vimy, a hero of Vimy Ridge and the Governor General of Canada at the time.

OUR LEARNERS

Lord Byng is a comprehensive secondary school that offers programs with high enrollment in both academic and elective areas. Our school is home to the Byng Fine Arts Mini School, a highly sought-after program that students from across the Lower Mainland can enter through a competitive application process. Furthermore, Lord Byng also encompasses a multicultural student body, Aboriginal focused education, Life Skills program, and diverse learners' cohorts.

MINI SCHOOL

The Byng Arts Mini School, established in 1999, is for students who excel in and are dedicated to the Fine Arts. As a school-within-a-school, Byng Arts is comprised of staff, students, and parents operating within the larger artistic and academic communities of Vancouver.

Byng Arts students specialize in one of the following areas: Band, Choir, Drama, Media Arts, Strings, or Visual Art, and attend several of their academic classes together as a cohort of Fine Arts learners.

In addition to an enriched curriculum, all students in Byng Arts participate in events that feature community artists, musicians and performers, thereby strengthening the collaboration between Byng and the professional arts community.
