Message from the Principal

Dear Lord Byng Families and Students,

Today was a very important day in our school's history as we gathered as a community to acknowledge the land on which the school is built. With the artists from the Musqueam Nation Martin Sparrow and Ramsey Louis in attendance, the school's Welcome Figure The Woman of the Grass was unveiled and celebrated with drumming and speeches by leaders from the Musqueam Nation, the school and the VSB District Aboriginal Department.

Thank you to all the staff, students and parents that have worked so hard to make this important step in our school's journey of Reconciliation to become possible.

Tomorrow we are celebrating the school after one hundred years and we invite parents, staff, students, alumni and members of the community to celebrate with us at our planned open house.

Have a great LB Anniversary Weekend!

Mr. Wilmann

Staff and Students prepare for Celebrating the School's 100-year Anniversary

The school is continuing to prepare for the 2025 Anniversary Celebrations in May. Some of the recent developments included the release of an amazing poster created by Ms. Schnieder's Senior Marketing Class.

Another important marketing and promotional tool that has been developed is the 100-year Anniversary Website developed by Mr. Pelletier, our Senior Computer Science teacher.

Lord Byng 100 Years Celebration – Saturday May 10th, 2025

Here is the website for the 100 Year Celebration.

Please visit <https://www.bying100.ca/> for more details.

Tickets to the evening event sold out. We thank all those who purchased a ticket.

Other preparations include the continued work with Musqueam Artists and Knowledge Keepers Martin Sparrow, Shona Sparrow, Caitlyn Sparrow and Ramsey Louis who are collaborating with staff and students to complete the Ceremonial Musqueam Paddles that will be displayed in the main entranceway to the school.

Senior Byng Arts Studio Arts Students head to Seattle

Senior Byng Arts Studio Arts Students took the road last week heading to the Seattle Art Museum to experience the artwork of Chinese artist Ai Weiwei:

Everything is art. Everything is politics." Globally renowned artist Ai Weiwei (Chinese, b. 1957) is celebrated as a disruptor of artistic canons and a champion of free expression. In his work—ranging across performance, photography, sculpture, video, and installation—he deploys humor and provocation, calling upon his viewers to examine history, society, and culture. Organized by SAM, Ai, Rebel: The Art and Activism of Ai Weiwei highlights the artistic strategies of his 40-year career for questioning forms of power. It marks the artist's first US retrospective in over a decade and his largest-ever US exhibition.

On Wednesday and Thursday, two hundred and eighty Social Studies students, from Grades Eight through Ten, participated in CIVIX's Student Vote for the upcoming federal election by voting for their preferred candidate in Vancouver-Quadra.
