Dear Parent(s) and Guardian(s),

We hope you had a wonderful summer! We would like to extend the warmest welcome to returning staff, students and families, with a special welcome to all our new staff and students.

The first week of school is very important as we finalize our student numbers for the 2022-23 school year. In this regard, any information you can provide is greatly appreciated. If you know that someone has moved over the summer and will not be returning or is away and will be returning late please let the office know.
