

Killarney Senior Social Studies Options 2026-27

Social Studies Course: Requirements

- GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS:
 - There is no mandatory Social Studies 11 course
 - Students need 4 credits of a “Senior Socials” course (all of these courses are 4 credits)
 - Students can take any senior grade 11 or 12 Social Studies course
 - Each of these courses build on the historical and geographic competencies of the grade 8-10 Social Studies curriculum.
 - BC First Peoples 12 will also count towards the graduation requirement of 4 credits of Indigenous-focused coursework.
 - If there is less space in a course, priority will be given to grade 12's
- UNIVERSITY ACCEPTANCE REQUIREMENTS:
 - ALL grade 12 Social Studies (Ministry approved) courses listed here are accepted at all BC universities.
 - Post-Secondary schools will be looking at all marks from grade 11 and 12

Explorations in SOCIAL STUDIES 11

- Designed to be a Social Studies survey course of the Big Ideas for Social Studies taken from Grade 12 courses.
- Social Studies 11: Explorations is not a replacement of Social Studies 11 and may be taken along with other senior grade 11 or 12 Socials courses as it will cover different content.
- This course will count as a “senior socials elective” that all students need to graduate but will not count for post-secondary grade 12 acceptance requirements.

Explorations 11 will cover the key Social Studies skills of inquiry, significance, evidence, continuity and change, cause and consequence, perspectives and ethical judgements.

Explorations 11

Human Geography:

- natural resource use and local, regional, national, or global development
- global issues and standards of living

Indigenous Studies:

- the richness, diversity, and resiliency that is embedded in the culture and experience of First Peoples
- processes of Reconciliation that resist the continuing effects of colonialism by nurturing mental, emotional, physical, and spiritual wellness

Explorations 11

Political Science/Social Justice:

- current issues in local, regional, national, or global politics and representations in the media
- systems of power and governance in global cultures
- methods used by individuals, groups, and organizations to promote social justice

See Ms. Stevenson (A226) for more information.

jstevenson@vsb.bc.ca

Social Justice 12

Are you interested in:

- discussions of privilege, injustice and inequality?
- exploring factors of ability, class, ethnicity, gender, race, religion and sexuality in relation to (in)justice?
- learning more about Indigenous peoples, eco-justice, gender and LGBTQ rights, globalization, human rights, poverty, racial and religious inequality?
- effecting positive change in the world?

Social Justice 12

Course Objectives:

- to understand the concepts and terminology of social justice
- to encourage analysis of current and historical events through a lens of social justice
- to recognize the causes of injustice locally, nationally and globally
- to critically reflect on our own value systems, and the sources of those beliefs
- to understand how to act in a socially just manner and become agents of change

Social Justice 12

Course Expectations:

- to support a safe and respectful classroom culture
- to participate in class group activities and discussions

This course is recognized by BC universities. Always confirm requirements of the department to which you are applying.

See Ms. Smith in A333 for more information

Comparative Cultures 12

This course will examine various ancient civilizations throughout the world and their contributions to our collective human experience and world history. Students will carefully compare various past and contemporary cultures and civilizations by analyzing political, social, economic and cultural structures.

Topics covered include but are not limited to:

- Ancient Rome
- Vikings
- The Aztecs, Mayans and Inca
- India
- Islam
- Ancient Greece
- And many many more!!!

Comparative Cultures 12

Course Content:

- Foundations of Civilization
- Legends and Myths
- Culture and Arts
- Military Exploits
- Cultural Values
- Philosophy
- Politics and History
- Laws and Traditions

...And Much Much More!

Comparative Cultures 12

Please note:

- This course is open to grade 11's and 12's
- It is an academic grade 12 credit
- This course is recognized by various universities and colleges

If you have any further questions about COMPARATIVE CIVILIZATIONS 12 please feel free to visit Mr. Tabak in room B202

BC First Peoples 12

- BC First Peoples 12 explores the varied identities, worldviews, and languages of B.C. First Peoples, emphasizing their connection to the land.
- This course examines how the impact of contact and colonialism continues to affect the political, social, and economic lives of B.C. First Peoples.
- A central focus will concern how cultural expressions convey the richness, diversity, and resiliency of B.C. First Peoples, and how, through self-governance, leadership, and self-determination, they continue to challenge and resist Canada's ongoing colonialism.
- Reconciliation functions as the foundation of this course, positioned as a transformative practice that requires all members of a society to work together to foster healing and address injustices

© Dave Ingram

BC First Peoples 12

Students will learn using a variety of sources, including films, guest speakers, field trips, student projects, and selected readings.

This course is recognized by B.C. universities AND fulfills grade 12 credits towards graduation for SS and the new graduation requirement of 4 credits of Indigenous-focused coursework.

BC First Peoples 12

Note that in addition to fulfilling the Ministry requirement, many post secondary programs currently require an Indigenous Studies course in first year studies. For this, BCFP 12 will provide an excellent foundation.

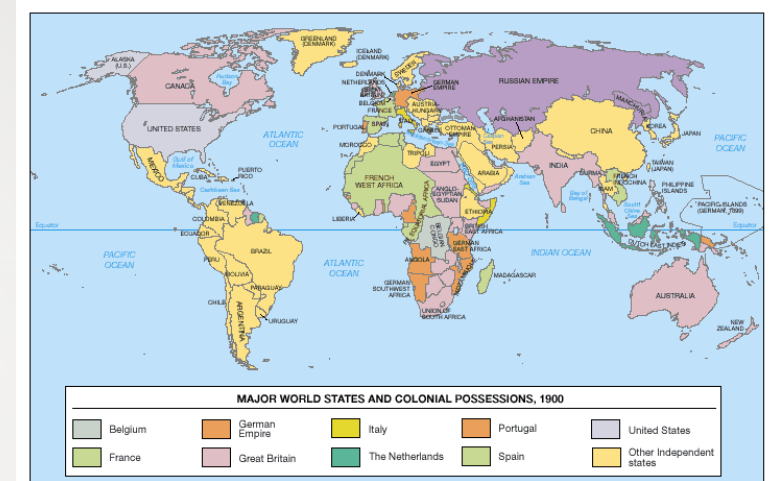

BCFP 12 will benefit those interested in pursuing law, politics, education, counselling/social work, healthcare, human resources, and the humanities, among others.

See Ms. Smith in A333 or Mr. Tanabe in B210 for more information

20th Century World History 12

20th Century World History 12 will cover social, economic and political changes in the 20th century. This will include movements, conflicts and the development of technologies which led to the breakdown of long-standing empires and created new economic and political systems.

World Colonial Holdings, ca. 1914. The European powers, great and small, competed with each other for world empires and world influence by 1900.

20th Century World History 12

The main topics to be studied are:

- global conflicts, including World War I, World War II, and the Cold War
- authoritarian regimes
- civil wars, independence movements, and revolutions
- human rights and movements including indigenous rights

20th Century World History 12

Further topics to be studied are:

- religious, ethnic, and/or cultural conflicts, including genocide
- migrations, movements, and territorial boundaries
- interdependence and international co-operation
- social and cultural developments
- communication and transportation technologies

For further information see Mr. Solmes in A234 or Mr. Tanabe in B210

LAW STUDIES 12

Explore and experience the Canadian legal system. During the school year, students will be introduced to fundamental legal concepts, possible career opportunities, court procedures, and both Civil and Criminal Law.

LAW STUDIES 12

EXPLORE:

- Controversial topics
 - Landmark court cases
 - The criminal mind
 - Investigation procedures
 - Rights & Freedoms
 - Various court systems
 - Incarceration & the prison system
- ... and much, much, more!

LAW STUDIES 12

SIGN UP NOW!

- Open to next year's grades 11's & 12's
- Grade 12 credit
- Recognized by various universities, colleges & post-secondary institutions

LAW STUDIES 12

If you have any further questions about Law 12 please feel free to visit Mr. Tabak in room B202 or Mr. Lee in B214.

ASIAN STUDIES 12

Explore the diverse history, culture, geography, and economic development of this exciting region. This survey course will examine the whole region with emphasis on China, India, Japan, Korea and Southeast Asia. We will trace the dramatic changes from the colonial era to the impact the region has on world affairs and culture

"Udon Know How Interesting It'll Be!"

"It's All That and Dim Sum!"

"Pho" nomenal Topics such as:

- Ancient history background (China, India, Japan, Korea, Southeast Asia)
- Impact of European colonialism and imperialism, 19th and 20th centuries
- Industrialization and economic growth
- Modernization/Technology
- Asian Diaspora and Immigration to Canada
- Merging of eastern and western culture
- Urbanization, Environmental issues
- Asian cuisine (Connection to culture and geography)

- Students will gain a greater understanding of the diverse cultures and regions within the continent through a variety of activities including inquiry based learning, research projects, and discussion.

For further information see Mr. Lee in B214

PHILOSOPHY 12

Philosophy is a discipline that examines the fundamental nature of knowledge, reality, and existence. It helps students develop an understanding of different ways of thinking

This course will appeal to students who:

- Wonder about existence and truth: How we know if something is true or not?
- Are intrigued by questions of right and wrong: Why do we do the right thing?
- Question ideas of justice and law: how do we determine what is just or not in society?
- Wonder what exactly is the “self”: A figment of my imagination or something really real?
- Are interested in theories of what reality is: Do things exist that are not physical?

PHILOSOPHY 12

Course Content:

- methods of reasoning and argument in philosophy
- metaphysical theories about the nature of reality
- epistemological theories about knowledge and truth
- social and political philosophy
- theories of morality, ethics, and aesthetics

The course will also focus on developing the principal tools of philosophical inquiry: comprehension, analysis, and critical evaluation.

Valuable skills: Communication skills, critical reasoning skills, and general problem-solving skills are all enhanced by study in philosophy.

For further information see Mr. Solmes in A234

