

Where Can I Look for Scholarships?

- Internet: Sign up and receive free scholarship options.
 - <https://scholartree.ca>
 - www.studentawards.com
 - www.scholarshipscanada.com
 - <https://yconic.com/>
 - www.bced.gov.bc.ca/awards
 - <https://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/education-training/k-12/support/scholarships>
- Counselling Centers in High Schools
 - Grade 12 Counselling Teams in scholarship channel
 - <https://www.vsb.bc.ca/lord-byng/page/2808/grade-12>
 - <https://www.vsb.bc.ca/lord-byng/page/2836/scholarships>
- Canada Student Loan Program
 - www.studentaidbc.ca
- University and college high school entrance scholarships
 - Some scholarships are automatic (based on grades) but
 - Some scholarships you need to apply for (Check individual websites and application deadlines!)
- University and college high school entrance scholarships
- Financial Aid at the post-secondary institute you plan to attend
- Work study programs at post-secondary institutes
- Job opportunities at the university or college you are attending
- Parent business
- Local service club - (Rotary, Lions, etc.)
- Savings from work
- Relatives
- Clubs such as minor hockey, minor soccer, minor baseball, etc.
- Parents' and grandparents' unions – the union where you work
- Veterans' groups
- What is your nationality? Special scholarships and awards based on heritage.
- Have a disability? Special scholarships and awards for people with disabilities.
 - <http://www.disabilityawards.ca/>
- Join the military. Receive a free education if you join the Armed Forces.
- Trading cards, comic books or coins – may be valuable!
- T.V., newspapers and magazines - keep your eyes open
- Alumni associations, if your high school has one