

Renfrew Library Weekly News

April 28, 2020

Vol. 3

Spotlight on Division 20

Here's what Enzo and Jasper have been reading!

Enzo: I read, "I Am Neil Armstrong". It was fun to read the book. And I liked the pictures. I also learned about how Neil Armstrong became an astronaut.

Jasper: I am reading the book my brother Aidaan wrote and published during this isolation. It is about a boy and his friends during the zombie apocalypse and they fight some monsters.

What is Ms. C. Reading?

El Deafo is a charming autobiographical graphic novel by Cece Bell, loosely based on her own childhood experiences. Cece, as a cute bunny character, explores some big concepts like losing her hearing, changing schools and looking for friendship.

In this uplifting picture book, Amy Krause Rosenthal writes a powerful letter to girls about always being themselves and loving themselves just the way they are!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MIQ-gs7yxSk>

What are YOU Reading?

Tell me what you are reading and you could be featured in next week's Library News!

Message me on Teams in your classroom library chat, or email:

kcoughlan@vsb.bc.ca

I can't wait to hear from you!