

Sir James Douglas Annex

7668 Borden Street, Vancouver, BC, V5P 3E1

PROJECT HIGHLIGHTS

The original school building was built in 1957. The architectural style of the school is Early Modern.

The single storey design incorporates classrooms along a central corridor. Classrooms are interconnected for team teaching opportunities. In addition, some classrooms have exterior doors to directly access the school grounds.

The school building was seismically upgraded in 2009. The interior layout was not significantly impacted by the seismic upgrade.
